Barbra will have a new French single released within the next two weeks, which she will introduce at her concerts.

"Je M'Appelle Barbra" will be a fall release. It will probably contain the four songs she recorded for the EP which has been available only in France until now. This was recorded with the well known French composer-arranger, Michel Legrand.

Barbra is expected to arrive back in the States the evening of July 17th (Sunday). There will, of course, be news coverage for this Gala event. I know most of you in the New York area will want to go to the airport to welcome Barbra home. If you will call this office, 212-Pl 7-3954, closer to the date of Barbra's return, we will give you exact details.

I hope this covers all your questions. GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY!

Regards,
