"STREIZETTE"

Vol. III, No. 3

HOPE YOU HAD A HAPPY SUMMER! It's Streisand-time all the time but in a couple days it'll be time for "The Belle of 14th Street." On Wednesday (October 11), Barbra's fabulous color special based on the vaudeville era of entertainment will be televised on CBS (10-11:00 p.m. in the East). For the first time, Barbra will have company, namely guest stars Jason Robards, John Bubbles and Lee Allen (who was asked to recreate his role of "Eddie" for the film version of "Funny Girl" right after taping "Belle"). And, don't forget those rotund beauties, the Beef Trust Girls, who were chosen by director-producer Joe Layton last spring from hundreds of eligibles. This is a very different format for Barbra, dancing, spoofing, even flying through the air. And, of course, singing. The show is the authenticated recreation of a vaudeville performance at the turn of the century. We know you'll love it—so be sure to tell all your friends not to miss "The Belle of 14th Street."

SIMPLY GREAT is the advance word on Barbra's next album, "SIMPLY STREISAND" (which will be released by Columbia Records very soon). It's a collection of venerable standards sung only the way Streisand could sing 'em. And, don't think any further for holiday gift ideas -- Barbra's working on an album of Christmas songs, "Jingle Bells" and merry more.

RESERVED SEATS: The film of "Funny Girl" will open on a reserved seat basis at New York's Criterion Theatre on Sept. 11, 1968. Since there is not yet a box office, write to: "Funny Girl," Columbia Pictures Corp., 711 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022 and ask to be put on the "First Choice" mailing list for "Funny Girl." For all of you who have written, this is the best way to get early reservations for Barbra's motion picture debut.

Publicity photos from "Funny Girl" are beginning to appear. Have you seen....

LIFE Magazine, Sept. 29 - Pictures of Barbra doing Swan Lake Ballet. (B. was "bumped off" cover for last minute news story.)

New York Times Magazine, Sept. 24 - Barbra sings "I'm the Greatest Star" and "His Love Makes Me Beautiful."

New York Sunday News, Section Two, Sept. 24 - Feature story written by a visitor to the set of "Funny Girl." This article also appeared in the Miami News and Chicago Tribune earlier in Sept.

Other articles will be appearing from now on. Watch for a major story in Redbook Magazine this winter. And, although we like to hear from you, if you especially like an article, let the magazine know too. Didn't you just love "Mama Barbra" in LOOK Magazine (July 25, 1967)! LOOK is visiting the set of "Funny Girl" soon, so look for another photo spread in the coming months.

BARBRA IN THE PARK: Thanks to you, Barbra's June 17 open-air concert in Central Park is now ENTERTAINMENT HISTORY. 135,000 of you made that night one of the most important ever in Barbra's career. That kind of fantastic turn-out shows everyone why she's "the greatest star." And, next year (yes, you'll have to wait for next year), you'll see the evening again in color on CBS-TV. With close-ups of you as well as Barbra captured on tape.

That's about all for now. "Funny Girl" will be completed by December and we'll have more news by then....

Cordially,

MEMORIES, MEMORIES: A limited supply of the newly revised souvenir book from the smash S.R.O. Hollywood Bowl concert is available for $1.25 (includes postage). This handsome book is packed with photos spanning Barbra's career, including the Central Park concert and "The Belle of 14th Street."

And, don't forget those round beauties, the Best of Barbra, who were chosen by director-producer Joe Layton and spanning four decades of stardom. This is a very different treat for Barbra, dancing, spoofing, even flying through the air. And of course, singing. The show is the authenticated recreation of a veritable performance at the turn of the century. We know you'll love it--so be sure to tell all your friends not to miss "The Belle of 14th Street."
