"STREIZETTE"

Vol. IV, No. 4

RAVE REVUES! Did you see what some of the film critics had to say about Barbra's fantastic performance in "Funny Girl?"

"I HAVE A STRANGE FEELING THAT I AM REALLY REVIEWING THE BIRTH OF A SUPER CELLULOID GODDESS AND NOT A MOVIE... MISS STREISAND IS NOT ONLY GOING TO BE ONE OF THE BIGGEST STARS IN THE CINEMA HEAVENS BUT ALSO A MYRIAD OF MILKY WAYS ALL BY HERSELF." -- Bob Salmaggi, WINS Radio, N.Y.

"WE LOVE YOU BARBRA! WHETHER SINGING, CLOWNING OR EMOTING, SHE IS SIMPLY SENSATIONAL." -- William Wolf, Cue Magazine

'FUNNY GIRL' CONQUERS THE WORLD OF FILMS! IT WAS ONE OF THE MOST EXHILARATING EVENINGS IN THEATRE HISTORY! BARBRA STREISAND IS NOT ONLY A GREAT SINGER BUT A GREAT ACTRESS!"
-- Leo Armati, London Evening Standard

"BARBRA STREISAND INCOMPARABLE ENTERTAINER IN 'FUNNY GIRL!' SHE PROVES NO MEDIUM CAN RESIST HER! ENORMOUSLY TALENTED... SHE LIGHTS UP THE SCREEN!"
-- Peggy Doyle, Boston Record American

"BARBRA AND 'FUNNY GIRL' WILL BE LANDMARKS OF SHOW BUSINESS!"
-- Earl Wilson, New York Post

"BARBRA'S GREAT IN 'FUNNY GIRL!' SHE MIGHT GET AN OSCAR FIRST TIME OUT!" -- Alta Maloney, Boston Herald

I'm sure you're all keeping your fingers crossed that she will. I know I am!

STAR OF THE YEAR! Yes -- Barbra has received the great honor from the National Association of Theatre Owners. She and Sidney Poitier were both named 1968 "Stars of the Year" and went along to the Association's banquet in San Francisco to receive their coveted awards. Congratulations!

MOTHER'S DAY SURPRISE: I know that Mother's Day is long since past, but I must tell you a story I forgot to mention in "Streizette" before. On that special day young Jason did something that amazed even his proud mama -- he greeted her in the morning with a chorus of "Hello, Dolly!" If that sounds contrived, it was. Papa Elliott coached his son through several "rehearsals" and offered encouragement from the wings when Jason made his singing debut. Only a mother would have recognized the tune, Barbra says, but she thinks Jason may have a musical future just the same.

TRIP TO ENGLAND: Barbra will take time out from filming Paramount's "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever," which also stars Yves Montand, to fly to London for the premiere of "Funny Girl" on January 15. Not long ago she taped a special half-hour interview for the BBC at her home in Hollywood which will be shown on English television to coincide with her visit. Elliott, obviously, would love to go with Barbra -- it just depends on whether he can get away from the set of his current film, "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice." Elliott plays the part of Ted.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS! Yes -- Jason Emanuel Gould will celebrate his second birthday on December 29 and I'm sure you will join me in wishing him a very Happy Birthday. Barbra reports that her son is growing and growing and learning new words every day. She admits trying to push food on him but says she always finds herself eating his leftovers!

ROYALTY TO VISIT BARBRA: Lord Snowden, handsome husband of England's Princess Margaret, will do the still photography for "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever."

"HELLO, BARBRA!" Barbra tells me she loves to visit the famed Farmer's Market in Los Angeles where the various venders apparently know that she is starring in the screen version of "Hello Dolly!" Especially at the bakery stall where she's always greeted with a box full of biscuits and a cheery "Dolly want a cracker?"

GOOD NEWS! Barbra's Fan Club will not be disbanded! The only change that's being made is that from now on members will not have to pay $1.25 a year for membership. Just continue to send in four stamped self-addressed envelopes for the quarterly issues of "Streizette!"

Happy holidays!
